2022 WORLD CHAMPION ALL-AROUND COWBOY 2022 WORLD CHAMPION TIE-DOWN ROPER

HOMETOWN: SPRINGER, OK

AGE: 22

Garrett came into IFR53, 5th in the all-around standings, 4th in the tie-down roping and 4th in the heading world standings. “In the fall, I saw where I was in the standings and knew I had a chance. I did what I call “rodeoing in the 4th quarter” and went back east to about 10 rodeos. I was able to close the gap to about $5,000 and knew I could make that up at the IFR if I did my job.”

“My plan coming into the IFR was to be on the barrier in both events and to not beat myself. I had some ground to make up in both events and decided to rope like I had nothing to lose.”

“I am a horseshoer and work 3-4 hours a day at my first job, then I go to my second job which is roping. I had two good head horses that I won my money on, Aflac and Joker. In the calf roping, I rode 3 different horses.”

The 2021 rookie of the year plans to duplicate his '22 rodeo season, “I’ve got a really good crew that I travel with, they know the best rodeos to get to and how to get entered, they started rodeoing when they were 18 and they are in their 40’s now, so I feel like I’m in good hands.”
